

Looking for a place to relax, have a yarn, and enjoy good company?

The Port Augusta Men's Shed is a welcoming spot for retired men over 65 and veterans to connect, keep active, and feel part of the community. Whether you're keen to get hands-on, learn something new, or just enjoy a cuppa and a chat, you'll find a warm, laid-back atmosphere and plenty of friendly faces.

Drop in, say hello, and see what the Men's Shed is all about — new members are always welcome.

The Men's Shed is a self-sufficient community initiative, supported through the production and sale of handcrafted items, along with generous donations and ongoing support from the local community.

There are more than 1000 Men's Sheds situated all across Australia.

What can you do at the Men's Shed?

- Work on community projects
- Use past skills and develop new ones
- Renew old friendships and make new acquaintances

LOCAL HANDMADE ITEMS FOR SALE!

The Port Augusta Men's Shed is a place where skills are shared and practical projects come to life.

Members work together to build, repair, and create a wide range of items for the community and for individuals, all while enjoying a relaxed, friendly atmosphere.

Whether you have something that needs fixing, an idea for a project, or just want to come in for a chat and a cuppa, the Shed is always open to a conversation and helping hands.
