Sponsorship Program 2022/2023

Applications for the Community Sponsorship Program are now being accepted for the 2022/2023 financial year. Community/Sporting Clubs are encouraged to apply for funding assistance for any future community events/activities.

This funding program offers financial assistance towards organisations and events in Port Augusta and Stirling North.

“This provides a great opportunity for community groups and clubs to leverage funding from Council to assist with locally planned activities.” John Banks, CEO Port Augusta City Council stated.

Council aims to develop partnerships over several years, sponsorships may continue for up to three years for ongoing events and festivals. All proposals must align with the Council’s strategic directions and outcomes.

Sponsorship may assist in enabling local, national, or international programs, events, and activities to be held. Activities must contribute to the identity of the city, promote economic growth, and encourage community participation.

Applicants must demonstrate that their proposed project, program, or activity meets the selection criteria stated in the guidelines.

Applications for funding must be lodged by Friday 4th February 2022 to allow consideration in budget deliberations for 2022/2023 financial year.

For application forms and further information please contact Jordan Crabtree at Central Oval on 8641 5400 or visit:
