We agree to be bound by this agreement when we receive your Direct Debit Request complete with the information we need to draw an amount under it.

We only draw money out of your account in accordance with the terms of your direct debit request.

On giving you at least 14 days' notice, we may:

You may request us to

If your Direct Debit falls on a Public Holiday we will draw your account under your Direct Debit request on the next available business day.

If your financial institution rejects any of our attempts to draw an amount in accordance with your Direct Debit Request, you will be charged an administration processing fee.

Three consecutive Direct Debit rejections will result in your Direct Debit agreement being cancelled.

We will not disclose to any person any information you give us on your Direct Debit Request, which is not generally available unless:

- You dispute any amount we draw under your Direct Debit Request where we will be required to disclose your information to your Financial Institution in order to investigate the dispute
- You consent to that disclosure, or

What you need to consider

Not all accounts held with a financial institution are available to be drawn under the Direct Debit System.

Before you complete your Direct Debit Request, it is best to check your account details with your financial Institution to ensure the details are correct.

It is your responsibility to ensure there are sufficient clear funds available in your account on the day that your Direct Debit is to be processed.
